

Notice of Public Hearing
Meridian Cemetery Maintenance District
Taking Forgone Property Tax Revenue for Fiscal Year 2021

A public hearing for consideration of taking and budgeting $200,443 in forgone property tax revenue related to the Meridian Cemetery Maintenance District considering taking the accrued forgone, as allowed for under Idaho Code Section 63-802(1)(e), in the District's proposed budget, for the purpose of completing the District's expansion project, will be held on July 30, 2020, 5:00 p.m. at the cemetery office located at 895 E Franklin Road, Meridian, ID 83642. The hearing is being conducted as required by 63-802(1)(e). This public hearing will be held in conjunction with the public hearing for consideration of the District's fiscal year 2021 proposed budget. Because of the current limitations imposed as a result of the COVID-19 circumstances, the public hearing will be held outside of the cemetery office. Social distancing will be required. Written or oral comments about the taking of forgone property tax revenue are welcome. Because of the COVID-19 limitations, the District encourages written comments be submitted. Those comments should be sent to Mark Magdaleno at mark@meridiancemetery.com and must be received by 4:00 p.m. on July 29, 2020. You may also participate telephonically, but you must contact Mark Magdaleno at 208-888-5705 by 4:00 p.m. on July 29, 2020 to coordinate the telephonic details.
